

September 2012 Update

1. The Surrebuttal Exhibits filed by September 7, 2012 are now available on the website: DEEPWELLPROTEST.ORG (Surrebuttal is a response to the Rebuttal material.)
2. The original deadline for the Surrebuttal material was July 27, 2012. However, several extensions were requested by and granted to a number of the parties to complete preparation of the material. This did NOT alter the remainder of the schedule.
3. UPCOMING SCHEDULE:

September 7,2012	Surrebuttal witnesses & exhibits due (Extended from July 27, 2012)
October 29, 2012	Close of Discovery
November 30, 2012	Objections and motions due
January 26, 2013	Pre-hearing conference
March 25-29, 2013	Hearing scheduled
4. NEXT STEP: All parties will now examine the Surrebuttal material and have until October 29, 2012 to conduct any additional Discovery (asking questions and requesting material) they feel is needed to prepare for the Hearing. So our attorney and hydrologists will be working hard on that.
5. FUNDING: The cost for preparing the Surrebuttal material was significant. We expect additional big bills for the Discovery and the Hearing Testimony. Thanks go out to all who have made donations to the Deep Well Protest – we could not have gotten this far without you!

If you have not contributed recently, we could REALLY use it now!
